REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

- The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is directed towards a method and apparatus for compressing a document. The closest prior art, (USPN 6,215,904 B1) shows a similar system, in which, an image scanner apparatus scans a document and provides image data in digital form representing the scanned document, the compression apparatus detects characteristics of the image data and compresses the image data using parallel compressors, each employing a different encoding scheme, the apparatus then selects compressed image data encoded by one of the compressors in accordance with the detected characteristics and stores the selected data. However, Lavallee fails to address: “for classifying the scanner output as belonging to a class of document taken from the document classes consisting of smooth, text, graphics and image, including setting an order of priority to the classification of smooth>text>graphics>image”; “wherein classifying a document as text when the absolute value of $c1 - c2 > 128$ and $p >$ the contrast threshold value for text, wherein two dominant values, $c1$, $c2$, are found and the cumulative probability, p is the summation over $[c1 - A, c1 + A]$ and $[c2 - A, c2 + A]$ "; " wherein a block-based classifier for classifying the scanner output as belonging to a class of documents taken from the document classes consisting of smooth, text, graphics and image, including a classification mechanism for classifying a document, having a histogram generator for generating a histogram of scanner output, and a threshold selecting mechanism for selecting contrast threshold values associated with at least two classes of documents". These distinct features have been added, respectively, to independent claims 1, 7 and 10 and render them allowable.

- Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
